

Excellence in Building Schools for the Future (BSF) Awards

Our BSF team in Sheffield, were praised at the Excellence in Building Schools for the Future (BSF) Awards in London, hosted by comedian Dara O'Briain.

Sheffield and Civica took the title of Most Effective ICT Partnership for their successful customised OCT programme, "school community involvement" and "high level of innovation".

Sheffield was also highly commended in the category of Local Education Partnership of the Year, which celebrates "genuine synergy between partners, value for money and the delivery of investment beyond schools".
