

King Edwards Design Exhibition

During Week Commencing 5th October, various documents, images and a 3D model projecting a fly over of the proposed changes to the school will be available at a Design Exhibition being held at both King Edward VII Upper School and the Broomhill Library. Anyone may attend and provision has been made for you to add your views. A preview of the information is available on the King Edward school page of this website.